- ix. Promotion of Farm Mechanization
- x. Strengthening of Extension machinery by creating additional AEO posts @ one AEO for every 5000 Acres
- xi. Timely & decentralized Seeds & Fertilizers distribution
- xii. e-Nam and Marketing reforms

2. Considering the plight of the farmers in the State, Government of Telangana has come up with a new concept of providing Investment Support Scheme providing @ Rs.4000/- per acre each season to all farmers (for both Agriculture & Horticulture crops) to meet the requirement of cost of (1) Seeds (2) Fertilizers (3) Pesticides and (4) Other investment in the field operations of farmers’ choice in the crop season from the year 2018-19.If the farmer cultivates land during Rabi also, then he will be eligible for another amount of Rs. 4000/- per acre.

3. A detailed farmer-wise survey (Rythu Samagra Survey) was taken up by the Agriculture Extension Officers (AEOs)of State Agriculture department in coordination with the Revenue department in the months of May-July, 2017 by contacting the farmers at their doorsteps and prepared the list of eligible farmers. It was reported that some more revenue related issues to be resolved (such as succession cases, Sada bainamas etc.

4. The Hon’ble Chief Minister, after holding several meetings with Revenue and Survey departments suggested to conduct farmer-wise survey in a campaign mode again by constituting Revenue teams with the coordination of Agriculture & Horticulture Departments to finalise the farmers lists revenue village-wise and to collect the actual extents of area owned by them by conducting the Gram Sabhas, duly resolving existing grievances, which can be amicably settled by mutual consent, from 15th September to 15th December, 2017. The lands not fit for cultivation and all Non-agricultural lands are not to be considered under the scheme. It was also decided not to touch the complicated cases, lands under litigation etc in first phase. The scheme of investment support will be implemented by the Agriculture department under the leadership of concerned District Collectors from the year 2018-19.
